Greater freedom and responsibility for students characterize administration philosophy

The leadership provided by the ADMINISTRATION turned to greater freedom for the student, exemplified by a relaxed dress and appearance code. More responsibility was placed on the student regarding attendance, make-up work, and grades. A new curriculum was being contemplated for the less academically talented, with emphasis on a "practical core" of academic subjects and the selection of skilled subjects. The "new look" manifested itself through a two-week independent English project for seniors and through the expansion of the independent study hall program.

The GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT expanded its student services by adding a program of group counseling to its range of activities. Working for open communication and understanding, this group approach promoted social and academic growth among students. The department also offered assistance to students with problems of an academic or personal nature. Seniors received sage advice concerning their post-graduation endeavors through the combined efforts of their parents and the guidance counselors.

Independent senior projects and public speaking class experiments bring excitement to english classes

Mr. James Grocott

Mr. Charles McKinney

A two-week independent study program for seniors in February highlighted the activities of the ENGLISH DEPARTMENT headed by Mr. James Grocott. Designed to give seniors an opportunity to pursue personal interests, the new program was conducted during regular English class periods. Also, innovations were instituted in Mr. Irwin Kerson's public speaking courses which emphasized communications through the media of music, films and art, as well as speech. Miss Virginia Kelly, Miss Christine Spezeski, and Mrs. Onaita Tibbetts brought their talents to the department this year.

Social studies classes participate in inter-community racial discussions

Acknowledging the trend toward academic freedom, the SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT encouraged critical thinking with new classroom discussion materials. The various grades and classes experimented with programs involving sociology, economics, and government.

Mr. Ronald Lech, new to the department, and Mr. John Roan, department chairman, arranged visits to ELHS by Negro leaders and students from Springfield. The class discussions were spirited and informative, and ran the gamut from soul music to prejudice.

Imaginative teaching and new equipment have increased the effectiveness of the math program. Presently the department is developing a two-year Algebra I program; also the study of this subject will be extended to two talented eighth grade classes. Miss Susan Johnson

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Troutman the SCIENCE DEPARTMENT introduced new textbooks for chemistry students and for the Advanced Biology classes. Also, innovative science courses are being planned: a Human Physiology course for seniors interested in nursing or medicine, a revised version of the BSCS program, and the Harvard Physics Project—a modern series of laboratory programs and classwork. Miss Susan Johnson was a welcome addition to the department.

Mr. Lloyd Dale

The several vocal groups of the MUSIC DEPARTMENT met during class periods, and combined to form a new, larger group known as the Singing Spartans.

Each of these groups participated at least once in various school assemblies, and their performances improved steadily. This trend was due mainly to new methods of teaching adopted by vocal music director Mr. Thomas Clough. They involved various movies, field trips, and music theory courses which stimulated the student to analyze contemporary music in an objective manner.

An unusual perspective has been introduced to the ART DEPARTMENT by its new chairman, Mr. Richard Goldie. He encouraged varied interpretations of his prescribed problems, thereby enabling each student to develop an individual style.

Drawing on film to create movies is one such innovation. Supplementing these refreshing activities was work in the traditional media, with the advanced class students perfecting their techniques.

All classes found that music induced a relaxed classroom atmosphere.

Culinary and design talents developed in home economics

"Experience and practice are the best teachers." With these brief words of introduction the students in the HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT were tutored in the arts of homemaking by Miss Barbara Condron and Miss Doris Knechtel. Proficiency at cooking and sewing became a common goal. Culinary classes labored to perfect the total meal—nutritious and attractive. Sewing classes emphasized the designing of clothing that was both durable and fashionable. Instruction was directed at teaching the future homemaker to acquire an understanding of basic appliances.

Business world's new methods taught to students

With assistance from Federal funds the BUSINESS DEPARTMENT under the guidance of Mr. Joseph St. Germain prepared the students for careers in secretarial and executive positions. Using modern equipment, such as dictating machines, duplicators, typewriters, and stenograph machines the students became acquainted with the new methods that are being used in the business world. In Basic Business and in Bookkeeping, attention is directed to the need for an understanding of the design and operation of our economic system.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Vespaziani the PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT provided students with the opportunity to participate in sports activities that ranged from varsity athletics to intramural competition. Co-ed volleyball was a new feature of the intramural program this year, as was homeroom competition in boys' basketball.

All-color introduction sets pace for award-winning Aegis '69

Having embarked upon the ambitious project of producing the finest area yearbook for 900 students, the AEGIS '69 personnel encountered challenges equal to their energies. In addition to the traditional qualities, innovations included a 32 page full-color introduction, and artistic divider pages for the 276 page book. Leading the staff through the eighteen month, 10,000 dollar journalistic journey were co-editors Christine Boucher and David Kennedy, and Advisor Mr. Richard Stenta. The result is an achievement of which all at ELHS may well be proud.

A PIZZA-COKE BANQUET is shared by the newspaper and yearbook homerooms, the latter's reward for purchasing the most newspapers in the subscription drive.

Pegasus encourages student, faculty literary endeavors

The school's literary magazine, PEGASUS, is published under the supervision of Miss Judith Sessler and a group of ten to fifteen girls whose duties include typing and revision of material. The purpose of the magazine is to encourage creative writing on the part of the student body, in the forms of short stories, poetry, and essays which are submitted and judged. Advised by Mr. James Dowd and Mr. Richard Freeburg, the staff assembles a concise and direct bulletin. Spiced with exclamation points and catchy phrases, however, it is more than just a sheet of information. "IT" is great!

Varsity debaters terminate successful season; capture third place in league

The arts of rhetoric and argument are skillfully blended to form a successful presentation by the members of the DEBATE TEAM.

Coach Charles McKinney and his varsity squad of Mark Safford, Mark Lacedonia, Mark Willis, and Jeff Boulrice participated in fourteen league debates and three tournaments at Amherst College and the Universities of Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

The team was able to defeat rivals South Hadley and Amherst in the final rounds of the year, and capture the third place trophy for East Longmeadow.

Chess, "Match Wits" squads, Mathletes compete intellectually in casual meetings and

The world of formulas and equations is the world of the MATHLETES. With their advisor Mr. Francis Dutille, they meet with squads from twenty other area high schools five times a year. In competition each contestant is given five thought-provoking problems, and the team's total score is calculated according to the number of problems each student solves. A trip to Dartmouth College and a practice contest in the math department were also sponsored this year by the mathletes.

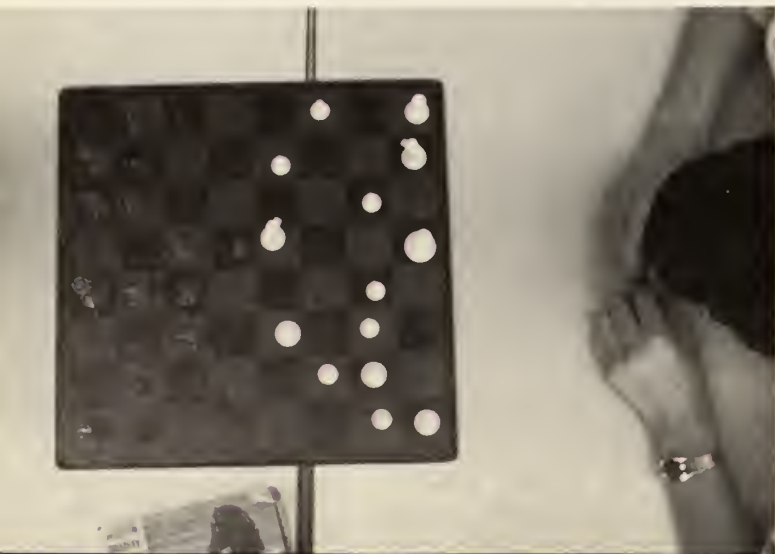

Every week two groups of high school students wage a mental duel on "As Schools Match Wits," televised on Channel 22. This year our AS SCHOOLS MATCH WITS TEAM nearly tasted victory when it challenged the first-round champions from Agawam. In the final minutes, the opponents, clinging to their 15-point lead, handed EL a 175-160 defeat. CASUAL COMBAT for veterans and novices. Battlefield: Mr. Grover's room any day after school.

Undoubtedly the most casual extra-curricular organization at ELHS is the CHESS CLUB. With no elected officers, members may stop at Mr. Richard Grover's homeroom any day after school and commence a spirited match with an opponent who may or may not be a regular member. Although the club retains an aura of informality, competitive matches are scheduled with other schools in the vicinity, notably Classical, and Minnechaug Regional, with several tournament and novice games occurring simultaneously.

Among the group's regular activities was its annual alumni reception in honor of the Christmas season. Serving as officers this year were James Weigand—president, Sally King—vice-president, Phyllis MacDonald—treasurer, and Christine Boucher—secretary.

Promoting activities and programs which enhance a member's knowledge of the teaching profession is the purpose of the FUTURE TEACHERS. Guided by Mr. Harlow Pendleton, junior and senior members gain practical experience by relinquishing last period studies to serve as teacher aides in the local elementary schools. Also, speakers, discussion periods and films are scheduled for meetings by Lois Hutchinson—president, Joanne Vedovelli—vice president, Patricia Filipek—secretary, and Mark Smith—treasurer.

Halls, classes served by Corridor Patrol, A.V. Club

Situated in strategic posts about the halls of the school, the CORRIDOR PATROL insures safe, orderly passage of the student traffic, and watches for violators of school rules. The student monitors, all seniors this year, were chosen at the end of their junior year. They have no official meetings. Upon assuming their duties, they were instructed to bring problems to Mr. Walter Porowski or Mr. Charles McKinney, organizers of the group.

With their knowledge of audiovisual equipment, the members of the A.V. Club are always prepared to assist E. L. students and faculty. Advised by Mr. Lloyd Dale, they also meet to enhance their own knowledge in that field. Little new equipment has been added this year, though teachers may now benefit from a selection of sound filmstrips. Also, they work in co-operation with Mrs. Lois Lopes, school librarian, in lending movie projectors, and record players to teachers for class use.

With vast quantities of information at her finger tips, the LIBRARY AIDE'S task is to make that information easily accessible to others. Two aides, Elaine Shea and Joanne Buendo, attended a Library Aides conference at the University of New Hampshire at which time they discussed methods of achieving library efficiency. Without doubt the Library Aides add an air of efficiency to the ELHS Library.

Office aides relinquish study hours; learn office procedures

The purpose of the OFFICE AIDES is to alleviate the burden of the office secretaries by performing many small, but time-consuming, chores. Directed by Mrs. Agnes Livingstone, the girls relinquish study hall hours to carry out their duties. Among their responsibilities are the collecting of attendance slips, the passing out of absentee sheets, and the answering of phone calls. Being an office aide gives a girl the opportunity to learn about office procedures, while making others' jobs easier.

By working in the guidance office, the aides benefit from the knowledge of, and easy access to the guidance materials.

The Band performed at the Exposition, marched in several parades, and had a band exchange with Manchester High School. Precision, harmony mark Majorettes' performances Precision and simple synchronized movements marked the performances of this year's MAJORETTES. At football games, in place of elaborate routines, they attempted to work in harmony with the movements and formations of the band. In competition, however, they were able to display their twirling ability more fully. Under the direction of Miss Barbara Condrón, twirling captain Kristine D'Angelo, and band majorette Lynne Kinney, they participated in Spartanum, and worked with the cheerleaders on several bake sales.

Attired in bright red and white, the J.V. CHEERLEADERS added spirit and color to the J.V. basketball contests. Selected in November, the girls, many of whom had no previous cheering experience, perfected the traditional chants in time to perform several new benchcheers for the first December game. The squad, which was dominated by the sophomore class, was captained by junior Beverly Dion and co-captained by sophomore Mary Ann Viveiros. Advisor Miss Doris Knechtel stressed the importance of neatness and good sportsmanship.

Boosting spirit and demonstrating good sportsmanship are the duties of the VARSITY CHEERLEADERS. This year, captained by Sherry Flaherty, they promoted enthusiasm not only by cheering at varsity competitions but also by planning pep rallies and making posters. Under the direction of Miss Doris Knechtel they spread their talents into new areas this year; they were seen and heard along the sidelines at soccer and baseball games and were present at the Coliseum to cheer for the hockey team.

Bob Willard tackles MVP and hatchet awards

Bob Barney, Tim Thompson share quarterback chores in 1—7—1 season

Hoping to kick off a winning season, the VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM marched into a brick wall of might as it confronted South Hadley in a contest that ended dismally at 32—6. Scampering 30 yards for EL's only T.D. was quarterback Bob Barney. Though EL fought well in the Ludlow conflict, the Spartans' fate was decided early in the game as the Lions roared to a 12—0 lead in the first three minutes of play. Jerry Sawyer lit up EL's half of the scoreboard in the second quarter, but the end of the game found the tally resting at 18—6.

After being crushed 43—0 by Enfield, the Spartans defended their home turf in meeting the attack of the Panthers from Palmer. Barney, in excellent form, scrambled for six, and fired a touchdown pass to Jim Manferdini, while Rich Mondoux booted a field goal. Palmer, however, performed equally well and the game ended at 16—16. The Spartan momentum was dampened in a dreary clash with Minnechaug played amid torrential rain. After bowing to Holyoke Catholic, the Spartan gridmen finally had their day by whipping Commerce 25—6.

Chris Colman, Bob Barney, Mark Dunn, and Jim Manferdini all scored for EL before hundreds of ecstatic fans. The hardest fought battle of the season was the 28—18 loss to Longmeadow as Bob Willard completed a brilliant off-tackle touchdown run, and Rick Dion hauled in a TD pass fired by Barney, while the expert toe of Mondoux split the uprights with a 25-yard field goal. EL dropped the final game to Classical, leaving them with a 1—7—1 record. Bob Willard, outstanding on both offense and defense, was the winner of the hatchet and MVP awards.

Dunn, Crary lead J.V. team to 3—3 season

In a season highlighted by outstanding offensive and defensive play, the J.V. FOOTBALL TEAM posted a satisfactory 3—3 record. The first game saw South Hadley capitalizing on two Spartan fumbles to dump EL 14—8. In the Ludlow game, however, quarterback Jeff Crary sparked the team during a 93-yard drive with passes to Scott Grabowski and Rick Dion to win 8—6. The offense continued to roll in the next conflict as Palmer was flattened 12—0 on two quick TD's in the first quarter by Scott Grabowski and Mark Dunn. Superstar Mark Dunn then inspired the Spartans to a 14—6 victory over Minnechaug by scoring both touchdowns. Calling the signals which piloted the squad to victory was alternate quarterback Gary Halon. In the next two games, Holyoke Catholic and Classical crushed the Spartan hopes for a winning season evening EL's record to 3—3.

John Corliss is voted most valuable player by teammates

After a long series of bitterly-contested, close-scoring matches, the VARSITY SOCCER TEAM posted a satisfactory 4—6—4 season. In the jamboree, which set the pace for most of the following contests, the team edged past Longmeadow 1—0. After punishing Monson, the Spartans marched back to confront Longmeadow in league competition, but an aroused Lancer eleven tied EL 1—1. In the next five games, the fierce EL squad held its opponents to a meager total of six goals, while evenly matching might with the league-leading Lions from Ludlow in a tough 1—1 decision. The team then proceeded to out-boot Monson again, and give Longmeadow its final whipping, chalking up seven goals in two games. In the closing conflicts of the season, the Spartans tied both Minnechaug and West Springfield in hard-fought battles. Sparking the team was MVP John Corliss along with teammates Dan Thomas and Russ Morton, all seniors. Also instrumental in producing the commendable season record were seniors Scott Seymour, Brad Towle, Barry Rufenacht, Tom O'Brien, and Frank Mitchell. Much applauded this year, as well, was senior goalie, Ed LeBlanc, who frustrated countless scoring attempts. Underclassmen Bob Bradley, Paul Lieberwirth, Frank Miorandi, and Al Hubbard rounded out Coach Ralph Cooley's team and will become the nucleus of next season's squad.

Unable to overcome the formidable opponents on its roster, the J.V. SOCCER TEAM slumped to a 2—8—4 season. As its record shows, the squad was pitted against several teams of equal strength, resulting in a number of tied scores and a great number of exciting moments. Junior Ed Kopec speared Monson almost single-handedly as he booted all three goals in that contest which earned us 3—1 victory. Highlighting another battle was the performance of Goalie Dave Carpenter, who blocked the Falcon's hopes with several fine saves as the Spartans dumped Minnechaug 2—1. Fighting tenaciously, the squad tied Monson, Longmeadow, Chicopee Comp, and Minnechaug, but failed to taste victory again. Offensive notables included Ed Kopec, Ken Williams, Gary LaFave and Steve Fairbanks, while William Kenyon, Larry Cooper, Dave Thodal, and Dave Correale spurred the defense.

EYES SET HIGH above the out-stretched hand of his Minnechaug foe, Dave hoops one to spark a Spartan rally: a typical Gallerani tactic.

Ending an eight game losing streak, the VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM rebounded to win five of its last nine contests. Co-captains Tim Thompson and John Corliss inspired a scoring spree in the first half of the Longmeadow game with the tally at half-time reading 41—25. The second half saw the tournament-winning Lancers displaying their skill as they dumped a suddenly cold-handed Spartan team 64—59. In crushing last place Ludlow, 64—50, Scott Seymour sparkled for EL, snatching rebounds and hooping 20 points. Thus revitalized, the cagers challenged a tournament-bound Minnechaug team and pulled a 79—63 upset, with Seymour and Bernie Sweeney clearing the backboards while Corliss swished 30 points. It was a revenge-minded quintet that invaded Longmeadow for the most thrilling battle of the year. The rebounding of Naylor and Seymour kept the game close. With four seconds showing on the clock, Tim Thompson drove through the Lancer defense to drop in a layup giving hundreds of exhausted fans a 52—51 triumph. After spotting Easthampton to a ten point half-time lead, the determined Reagan-men systematically destroyed the opposition by 20 points, with extraordinary ball-handling and shooting by Corliss, Thompson, and Naylor. Junior Greg Naylor, then led the Spartans to an easy 87—62 win in the Ludlow tilt. The season ended on the downbeat with a flashy Minnechaug team outplaying our cagers by a 71—60 margin, leaving the varsity cage record at 5—12.

A red-hot battle, between EL's J.V. BASKETBALL TEAM and the hoopsters from Agawam, opened a frustrating 4—12 season with a 64—60 defeat. EL clicked for points in the West Springfield and Easthampton contests chalking up victories, but bowed to Enfield, Commerce and Longmeadow. In a fine showing, David Correale, Tom Thompson and John DesRoches stymied the Ludlow defense with brilliant basket-making while sparking the team to a 47—27 victory. The season's best performance came in the Minnechaug game when Craig Johnson poured in 34 points to sock the Falcons 74—57. Often scoring in double figures were Tom Thompson and Craig Johnson; John DesRoches and Steve Fairbanks kept busy with agile defensive plays.

Mondoux, Morton, and Thomas grab 109 points as top front line in Wright-Fay; D'Amato brilliant in nets SLASHING DOWN-ICE is Danny Thomas, third man in the greatest scoring forward line in the league.

Backed by 200 screaming fans, the EL HOCKEY TEAM ripped into its "Big Season" by whipping Agawam 5—3.

The pucksters then met Longmeadow in a tight conflict that was deadlocked until the third period when a Lancer-scored goal set the tally at 1—0. The EL hockey machine then chewed up its next nine opponents.

In the Palmer game, Dave Griffin and Rich Mondoux each scored hat tricks while leading their team to a 10—2 victory, with Mondoux repeating that feat in the 6—1 victory over Trade.

In other conquests the Tarsa-men outclassed Chicopee and Commerce and delivered Holyoke a bare-knuckled 13—1 beating.

The Spartans were not expecting an easy victory over Longmeadow, and only the flashy goal-tending of sophomore Matt D'Amato, the brilliant defense of Barry Rufenacht, and the goals of Russ Morton and Danny Thomas gave EL a 2—0 win, and a secure first place in the Wright-Fay Divison. Riding behind a five-goal performance by Mondoux, the hungry Spartans iced a win over Agawam, then romped over Palmer led by Mondoux, Morton, "the M and M boys," and Thomas, the highest scoring front line in the league with 109 points. The overconfident pucksters were then upset by Chicopee Comp, but swept Holyoke and Commerce off the ice to clinch the title. In tournament play the Spartans tangled with a hot Chicopee team and lost 3—2, ending a season of brilliant play and phenomenal spirit with inspiration provided by an army of loyal fans.

PAST BARRY, but the lightning quick reflexes of Matty D'Amato blocks an all but invisible puck.

Erwin Belorusky, Stan Sroka, John Ouellette, Peter Ouellette tear up record books in individual performances; Stan and Peter team with Bob Willard and Chuck Taylor to hit 3:44.7 for 400 freestyle relay at New Englands

Displaying no loss of power, depth, or style the SWIM TEAM posted a 12—2 mark while continually rewriting the record book. A 65—30 victory over the Pittsfield team provided the necessary initial proof.

After gliding through their next two meets, the mermen were inspired by competition from Holyoke, the New England champions. The aquamen displayed record-breaking form but were overpowered

59—36. Back on the victory trail, the Spartans out-churned their next four opponents. The winning streak was snapped by Chicopee in a 50—45 battle that erased the hope for a league championship. Regaining form, the mermen whipped the next four opponents with Bill Snow diving to a 140 point season high against West Springfield. Performances in post-season meets justified Coach Bolles' pride in his boys as they took third, seventh, and sixth places respectively in the Western Mass, State, and New England meets. Inspired by the pressures of strong competition, the Spartans made a shambles of the record book. Senior Erwin Belorusky powered the team to success in the Western Mass Invationals in the 100 breaststroke. In the State Meet he bettered that record

(to 1:06.8) and took first place in the New Englands. Not to be outdone, juniors, John Ouellette, in the 200 Individual Medley, and Stanley Sroka in 100, 200, and 400 freestyle events blazed new marks in the post-season competition. Stan then teamed with Bob Willard, Chuck Taylor, and Peter Ouellette (co-holder of the 50 freestyle record) to slice NEAR SYNCHRONIZED TURN—and 25 yards to go in this breaststroke practice session: Carla Ireland, Sandy Albano, and Sue Abel.

In a season that saw fine individual performances, both offensively and defensively, the GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM posted a fair 4—6 record. The squad dropped its first two contests despite the shooting talent of co-captains Mary Ellen Boyd and Nancy Steitz. In those losing causes Kathy Price dazzled the opponents by firing several "impossible" outside shots. At last clicking, the team overpowered West Springfield 37—26, with Nancy Steitz and Pat Farrell popping in several layups, including a Steitz backhand layup. Defeated by Longmeadow, Southwick and Somers, the girls found victory in their second clash with West Springfield. Inspired by this conquest, the team downed Longmeadow 28—22, and edged past Southwick 18—17. Spurring the offense were Nancy Steitz, Pat Farrell and Rosanne Reis, while Edna Hanson and Pat Filipek were strong on defense. Several J.V. games were played allowing new players to gain valuable experience.

A FEW CHOICE WORDS from substitute coach Miss Jackie Upshaw.

A MOST AGGRESSIVE PLAYER—Nancy Steitz pressing her foe in the Spartanettes 33—19 loss to a tall Westfield team.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM: FRONT ROW: Patricia Farrell, Sharon Bode, Nancy Steitz, Rosanne Reis, Edna Hanson, Martha Heenan. ROW 2: Pamela Cushman, Patricia Hendrick, Bernadette Downie (manager), Mary Ellen Boyd, Bonnie Duley, Kathleen Price, Vivian Haskell (manager). ROW 3: COACH: Mrs. Pamela Grazio, Kathleen Malloy, Joanne Young, Patricia Filipek, Jennifer Campbell, Nina Nascimbeni, Alice Ferrero, Dianna LaBonte.

EVENLY MATCHED in fourth quarter jump-ball action is Rosanne Reis.

BASKETBALL BALLET—rebound attempts by Edna Hanson(11) and Pat Filipek fail against Westfield opponents.

Close, low-scoring decisions marked the GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY season, and the skillful Spartanettes grasped nearly every opportunity to smash the winning goal. The opening game of the season found EL facing Westfield in a tense conflict which ended in a 2—2 tie, one of the season's three ties. The team challenged Longmeadow and walked away victorious from a 1—0 contest. The girls went on to secure a 2—1 win in a clash with Minnechaug, this being the first victory over this rival in our history. Another high point of the season was a 2—0 shut-out of West Springfield, while the squad's only defeat came in a tough second game against Longmeadow, in which our arch-rival turned the tally to their favor 2—1. EL's leading scorers were Nancy Steitz and Mary Ellen Boyd, with fine assists made by Ginny McDyer and Karen Gardell. Defensive skill was displayed by Rosanne Reis, Sharon Bode, and Edna Hanson.

Great season for field hockey team: 5—1—3 mark best ever

SCRAMBLE IN THE DUST—Genevieve McDyer and Rosanne Reis attack and destroy the Falconette hope of victory.

Opportunity for Understanding

The biggest barrier to understanding between students who are white and students who are black is the color of their skin.

For the past several years, Commerce High School and East Longmeadow High School have been working together to break down this barrier. The two schools have developed an exchange program that allows students to spend time at each other's schools.

But there is a reason why the gap between the ghetto and the suburbs exists. It is the color of their skin. This is the barrier which is the biggest in our time. It is the barrier which is the biggest in our time. It is the barrier which is the biggest in our time.

The exchange program is a small experiment in better understanding. But it is an experiment which is worth trying. There is a chance that this program will have a positive effect on the lives of the students who participate.

The 1969 season saw the Spartan TRACK TEAM compile an imposing 11-1 record losing only to Minnechaug.

This was the year for record-smashing performances by several cindermen. Bob Willard set the shot put mark at 49'6" and pole-vaulted 11'6". Senior Mark Lacedonia burned the mile circuit in a record 4:37.3 while fellow speedster Jeff Crary topped the timbers at 15.2 in the high hurdles, and at 20.2 in the 180 low hurdles. These feats earned him a share of the MVP honors. Co-winner was 100-yard dash man, Chris Colman. Another point grabber was John Stratos in the javelin. Also, the "Frito Bandito" led the team in morale-building serenades.

Since special meets determine track championships, the pressure was on the high-flying Spartans one rainy day at Palmer.

The revenge-minded team, overshadowed by Minnechaug all season, broke open the Valley Wheel Meet when Jeff Crary and Peter Ouellette took first and second places in both the high and low hurdles for 16 big points.

Top honors also went to Mark Lacedonia in the 2-mile (10:18.8), Chris Colman in the 100-yard dash (10.5), and Bob Willard in the pole vault (11 feet). In all, E.L. snagged the Wheel Championship with 45 points, to 36 for second place Minnechaug. One week later, the Spartans took the Class A Western Mass. Championship at Springfield College.

Outpointing their closest competitor Amherst 43½ to 39, the Dutillemen were led by Willard, Crary and Ouellette.

In April, at the Steele Relays, these last two had combined with Bruce Ostrander and Paul LaBroad to set a new meet record of 59.1 in the 480 low hurdles. Double wins by Crary and Willard led the Spartans to a third championship in the West Springfield Invationals on June 3 to round out a trophyful season. These championship honors belong to the entire team, to the fine coaching staff, and to a very proud school.

Tom Mineo blasts 19 RBI record

Returning veterans and talented rookies combined forces this year to post a praiseworthy 11-7 record for the VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM. In the season opener with Longmeadow, fine hitting by Dan Thomas and Mike Beaulieu could not overcome the weak fielding and miscues as the Spartans were pummelled 12-3. A 5-4 edging of Commerce highlighted by Beaulieu's 5 inning, no-hit pitching started the Katsoulismen on a winning spree. In the course of these seven games the EL diamondmen outscored their rivals 44 to 16 including two shutouts over Easthampton and Agawam. During the next five games the Spartans could produce but one win losing three of the four games by one run. This trend was halted by a trio of heroes in the Palmer game: the 5 for 8 hitting of Thomas and Seymour produced 6 runs which were more than enough when coupled with Ned DeGray's no-hit masterpiece. But the rest of the team slapped the opposition with an insulting nine additional runs. The team played .500 ball for the remainder of the season. When a team scores 107 runs in an 18 game season, hitting kudos must go to a hard-hitting team. Outstanding offensive power was supplied by Bob Barney (who also played a flawless 2 years behind the plate), Scott Seymour, Dan Thomas, Tom Mineo, John Corliss, Jerry Sawyer, Steve Newell, and Mike Beaulieu. Sharing MVP honors were Dan Thomas and John Corliss. These versatile diamondmen joined RBI record holder Tom Mineo on the All-League team.

Jayvees blast arch-rival Lancers twice during 5-9 season

Igniting a 5-9 season, the J.V. BASEBALL TEAM buried Longmeadow 15-10 under an avalanche of hits as Wayne Scully hit 4 for 5, Alan Hubbard 3 for 4 and Dave Correale 2 for 4. Bad breaks and miscues often proved the team's undoing as in the 12-8 loss to Agawam despite Steve Fairbanks' 3-run homer.

Ace hurler Alan Hubbard got the Reaganmen in the winning mood with an 8 strikeout, 5-4 win over Ludlow.

Led by double-threat men Dennis Killoren and Al Hubbard, the team was able to boast of defeating 4 of 7 rivals.

Other fine players included Scott Grabowski, Mike Keane, and Steve Fairbanks in the hitting department, while Sam Siano, Dave Correale, and Andy Byrne turned in some fine fielding to highlight the team's defense.

Spartan swingers tie for wheels' third spot

This year the Spartan GOLF TEAM compiled an impressive 11-5 record against tough competition and tied with the Ludlow Lions for the third place in the Valley Wheel. An opening defeat at the hands of Longmeadow gave the Spartans the incentive to come back and win a dual match against Ludlow and Enfield. A 10-8 victory over Minnechaug was then followed by losses to the clubmen from South Hadley and Ludlow. In later matches, the EL golfers crushed Palmer but lost twice to an undefeated Agawam team. During the course of subsequent Minnechaug and Southwick games, both Joe DeAngelo and Brad Towle shot record-tying 73's. Enfield next fell victim to the linksmen and the school record was once more shaken, this time by Greg Naylor. In the last and grandest match of the season, archrival Longmeadow was completely outclassed by our golfers for only the second time in EL history.

All six Spartans broke 80 in this crowning triumph. Tim Thompson, Rob Lundgren and Greg Naylor turned in fine performances while representing ELHS in the Western Mass. Individual's Tournament. Greg Naylor received the Golf Team's MVP award this year. The JV team also fared extremely well during the season with a sparkling 5-0 record.

THE FLAG IN SIGHT, John Lasek taps the dimpled sphere.

Tennis team slams Tech in final match

IN A TEN-FOOT HIGH racket-swishing arc, Andy Farquharson aces one.

Placing seventh in their league, the enthusiastic and spirited Spartan TENNIS TEAM finished the season with a record of two wins and fourteen losses. Although hindered by a lack of experience and tough competition, the team's performance was commendable with all of its members winning matches.

In the first weeks of the season, the team suffered losses to Agawam, Cathedral, Longmeadow, Classical, Amherst, Minnechaug and Palmer.

The first taste of victory was over Tech, with Sabourin, Lamarche, Farquharson and the Wallace — Wadsworth team scoring points for the 4-1 win.

After defeats by the seven leaders in the second round, the netmen finished the season with a heartening 4-1 victory again over Tech. With a 7-9 record to his credit, Dave Sabourin received the team's MVP award. The other members of the team were singlesmen Paul Lamarche and Andy Farquharson and doubles teams Lee Wallace and Jeff Wadsworth, and David Hansen and E. J. Fleming.

Coaches never lose

A team can lose.
 Any team can lose.
 But in a sense a very real sense
 a coach never loses.
 For the job of a coach is over and finished once the starting whistle blows.
 He knows he's won
 or lost before play starts.
 For a coach has two tasks.
 The minor one is to teach skills, to teach a boy how to run faster, hit harder,
 block better, kick farther, jump higher.
 The second task,
 the major task, is to make men out of boys.
 It's to teach an attitude of mind.
 It's to implant character and not simply to impart skills.
 It's to teach boys to play fair.
 This goes without saying.
 It's to teach them to be humble in victory and proud in defeat.
 This goes without saying.
 But more importantly it's to teach them to live up to their potential no matter what this potential is.
 It's to teach them to do their best and never be satisfied with what they are but strive to be as good as they can be if they tried harder.
 A coach can never make a great player out of a boy who isn't potentially great.
 But he can make a great competitor out of any child.
 And miraculously
 he can make a man out of a boy.
 For a coach
 the final score doesn't read so many points for my team so many points for theirs.
 Instead it reads:
 so many men out of so many boys.
 And this is a score that is never published.
 And this is a score that he reads to himself and in which he finds his real joy when the last game is over.

"THERE'S A LOT OF MEMORIES"

Diamonds not girls' best friend in winless softball season

It was the kind of season that could best be termed an exercise season for the GIRLS SOFTBALL TEAM.

The girls, though playing intensely, and sometimes well, always lost.

Their spirit (and errors) proved no match for the competitions' booming bats, with many of the contests' results resembling football scores. Cases in point were furnished by the games against Longmeadow where our girls were on the short end of a 14-13 nip-and-tuck battle.

The second time around, the Spartanettes received a drubbing to the tune of 38-7 from their archrivals. The girls also took beatings from Chicopee, West Springfield, and Minnechaug. But as the last game ended, the girls were heard shouting a vengeful, "Wait Til Next Year!"

NEPTUNE'S TRIO! Off the blocks for an aqua journey are Diane Halon, Jeri Mercier, and Kathy Brown.

Churning its way through the most successful season in its history, the GIRLS' SWIM TEAM turned in a 3-8 record. Although it was lost, the first meet was the most spectacular as the Spartan mermaids windmilled their way to five new school records. Debbie Sawyer brought in a time of 1:26 for the Individual Medley, Jenny Campbell raced to a new time of 1:14.2 in the 100-yd. freestyle, Kathy Barry shattered the 50-yd. backstroke record, and Sue Abel established a new 42-second record for the 50-yd. breaststroke. Also, the 200-yd. freestyle relay record was reset at 2 minutes, 11 seconds by the team of Jenny Campbell, Nancy Sroka, Sally King, and Debbie Sawyer. The team sank the hopes of Chicopee twice, and defeated Chicopee Comp. once, bringing victories much appreciated and long overdue.

Spartan Laugh-In socks it to 'em

Once again the talented performers of ELHS delighted audiences with SPARTANUM SPECTACULUM. Presented through the efforts of the Student Government and the National Honor Society, the show was created under the competent direction of seniors Cynthia Burr and Sally King.

Providing experienced expertise were Mr. Manley Hart, Mr. John Roan, Mr. Ronald Sarazin, Mr. James Harwood, Mr. Joseph Charron, and Mr. Roy Grundstrom.

Along with the traditional and dramatic Silvermen tableaux were several new acts including an unusual number, "Legs", an hilarious rendition of "Laugh-In", and a tipsy account of "Mrs. Gilhooley's Bungalow" given by Debbie Butler. Musical solos highlighted Jim Wilkins with "Maria", Valerie Jamison with "My Man", and "Harper Valley PTA" by Sue Langevin.

Providing instrumental variety were Marie Roy with a piano solo, "Novelette" and Joe McCollum with his performance of "Guantanamera" on the accordovox.

John Corliss conducting the student pit orchestra furnished musical accompaniment for the program, while emcee Joe Marazzi, often attended by the kickline lovelies, added light humor and wit. An outstanding dance number was performed by the cheerleaders to the beat of "Bonnie and Clyde", "Choreo Blues" enlivened the background of a sensational dance by a golden Sally Benoit, while a jazzy "Peter Gunn" sent blond Paula Finn through leggy acrobatics. Group production vibrations crowded the hall as the Twilight Twirlers took us on a luminescent "Walk in the Black Forest". The Charmers harmonized on "Happy Together" while the Travellers reminisced "You Were On My Mind". The entire cast took the enthusiastic audience on a trip "Up, Up and Away" in a soaring finale.

THE NASHVILLE SOUND — Sue Langevin pours emotion into "The End of the World."

I'M A HOME-LOVING GIRL and that's where I should be, home — loving," sighs Laugh-In's Pat Donovan.

Mistiness and madness highlight Banquet

The Class of '69 held its SENIOR BANQUET on June 9th at Betty's Towne House. The seniors enjoyed the plentiful food and pleasurable atmosphere. Following tradition, the class Will and Prophecy were read, after which Mr. Jarvis, Mr. Shindler, and Class President David Griffin addressed the gathering. All expressed pride and anticipation of a good future for the graduates-to-be. The finale to this memorable evening came when Aegis '69 co-editors, Chris Boucher and David Kennedy, presented the dedication yearbook to Mr. Richard Stenta who climaxed his remarks on "small things" with a recording of "The Impossible Dream," which left many misty eyes and hopeful thoughts.

Class of 1969 hailed as "best class ever"

Parents began arriving early – proud, excited, eager for the twilight ceremonies of GRADUATION to begin. The steady beat of "Pomp and Circumstance" quieted the crowd, and as marshals Stanley Sroka and Richard Willard led paired lines of graduates-to-be, the crowd strained to catch a first glimpse of "their" seniors.
David Griffin, Senior Class President, welcomed the class and lauded
its achievements.
Charles Ryan, the guest speaker, delivered the main address, summarizing youth's responsibility as a search for universal human dignity.
As Mr. James Towle began awarding diplomas, spontaneous applause burst from the

of a too-long-absent Kathy Cormier.
and then,
one by one,
they too received their badges of achievement, and one by one, this "best class ever" walked away.
